PURSUE: Strategies for Construction Firms Woodfield A & B

Moderator: Rochelle Codlyn

Session 1 - Construction Opportunities for Highway Contractors

9:00-10:00 AM

Panel

Tom Buchholz, WisDOT NE Project Development Manager
Kim Schauder, WisDOT SW Project Development Supervisor
Adrian Lopez, WisDOT SE Project Development Supervisor
Bill Mohr, WisDOT SE Project Development Supervisor
Gustavo Giraldo, Illinois Tollway Diversity and Strategic Development Chief

PURSUE: Panelists will provide an overview of highway construction contracts, highlighting subcontract and small business opportunities from all corners of Wisconsin through to our neighbor, Illinois. WisDOT Mega Project Leaders will share updates on their projects —US41/441, I39/90, Verona Road and the Zoo Interchange. The Illinois Tollway Chief will diversify your contract options by describing opportunities across the border.*

Session 2 - Best Practices from a DBE Contracting Perspective

10:10-11:10 AM

Panel

Don Greuel, WisDOT Bureau of Chief Project Services Engineer
Brian Mitchell, Choice Construction and NAMC President
Craig Clements, Pro Electric President

EXECUTE: WisDOT's Project Development Chief will share solutions for common pitfalls in WisDOT contracting. This will be followed by a practical discussion with two DBE's who have a track record of successful subcontracting with Wisconsin UCP Partners, municipalities and neighboring states. Each DBE will share tips for success and highlight strategies used to compete and execute government contracts profitably.*

Session 3 - Are You Ready for That Million Dollar Contract?

11:20 -12:20 PM

Panel

Randy Crump, Prism Technical Management & Marketing Services CEO
Kevin S. Keller, The Fedeli Group Construction Services Senior Vice President

WIN: Making money is the goal of all entrepreneurs but optimizing profits is the realization of the entrepreneur's goal. Discover business resources that will help you predict profits, manage cash flow, build credit and subsidize growth. Expert panelists will share assessment tools and resources associated with bonding, money-management and micro loans, so you will know that you are ready for contracts worth more than a million.*

Session 4 - Contracting Opportunities for Micro-Firms

2:00-3:00 PM

Panel

Brian Engel, Milwaukee County DBE/ACDBE Contractor Coordinator
Nikki Purvis, City of Milwaukee Office of Small Business Development Manager
Jesse Greenlee, WHEDA Emerging Business Program Manager

WIN: Specialty contractors have to sort through solicitations and advertisements to find opportunities that fit their specialty and their size. This session simplifies this task by bringing the source to you. Each panelist represents an authority or municipality whose goal is to assist and protect the interest of the emerging and small business in their public works contracting. Business owners will learn where to look for public works contracts, how to sort for small/specialty opportunities, engagement strategies, research participation goals, and review contract schedules.*

Session 5 - Executing Contracts: Keep the money flowing

3:10-4:10 PM

Panel

Don Miller, OTIE Senior Transportation Engineer
Ryan Schanhofer, KL Engineering Senior Construction Manager
Greg Morelli, CG Schmidt Vice President and Managing Director

EXECUTE: Now that the contract/subcontract is in hand, you must deliver what you promised. Subcontractors are dependent on the prime when it comes to project schedule and payment. This panel will share proactive strategies for maintaining accountability for your work items whether they were in the initial contract or not. This session focuses on how to ensure prompt payment for subcontract work completed. Topics covered will include managing change orders, assessing quality control, maintaining compliance and billing strategies.*

WIN: Strategies for Consulting Firms Woodfield C & D

Session 1 - Certification Alternatives: Analyzing the Best Opportunity for your business

9:00-10:00 AM

Moderator: John Franklin

Panel

Heather Olson, NCMSDC Certifications and Corporate Director

Norman D. Davis, City of Madison Civil Rights Affirmative Action Division Manager

Rick Norris, Milwaukee County Community Business Development Partners Director

James Strube, U.S. Small Business Administration Business Opportunity Specialist

PURSUE: This session will introduce the National Minority Supplier Development Council's certification program as a viable alternative for DBE certified firms to broaden their scope of opportunity beyond federally funded government contracts into corporate and public-sector supply chains. Following the introduction of NCMSDC, panelists will acquaint firms with the benefits and opportunities afforded by various government agencies and funds to help businesses cash in on their certification and government partnerships.*

Session 2 - Best Practices from a Consultant Perspective

10:10-11:10 AM

Moderator: Minal Hahm

Panel

Nate Czech, WisDOT Consultant Services Chief

Minal Hahm, M Squared Engineering President

Amanda Zacharis, Alfred Benesch & Compnay Design Group Manager

Harvind Singh, Singh & Associates Executive Vice President

PURSUE & WIN: This session will open with WisDOT's Consultant Services Chief sharing a proactive "To Do List" when competing for WisDOT professional service contracts based on his experience as a reviewer. This will be followed by experienced small-business CEO's sharing lessons learned, while building their small business in the transportation industry. Attendees can expect an interactive panel discussion around growth strategies addressing marketing, financing, resource management and topics introduced by the audience.*

Session 3 - Financing to Build Your Small Business

11:20-12:20 PM

Moderator: Craig Anderson

Panel

Craig Anderson, AICCW/FACC Executive Director

Michael W. Hetzel, WWBIC Director of Lending

Roberto Escalante, Executive Director, USDOT Small Business Transportation Resource Center

Mary Trimmier, SBA Lead Economic Development Specialist

PURSUE: Because cash flow is the biggest challenge for small business, we sought local and federal resources that provide financing options for small businesses with a genuine commitment to your success! Attendees will be inundated with information about small business financing alternatives, from micro-loans and mobilization loans to lines of credit. Panel will discuss the role of credit and banking relationships, emphasizing the requirements, resources and process for capitalizing on their services.*

Session 4 - Contracting Resources for Small Businesses

2:00-3:00 PM

Moderator: Kelly Jackson

Panel

Gavin Diaz, Info Tech Sales Associate

Shane Mahaffy, SBA Lead Business Opportunity Specialist

Joe Yovino, Daily Reporter Editor

Joseph Smetak, Wisconsin Procurement Institute Government Contracts Specialist

PURSUE: Do you seek efficiency and innovation in the way you pursue contracts and exchange quotes? Are you tired of sifting through irrelevant email solicitations? This session will introduce and demonstrate technological tools to add efficiency to your pursuit of contract opportunities. Representatives from The Daily Reporter and Bid Express will explain and demonstrate web-based applications that can streamline your pursuit. SBA will explain its cadre of services and resources tailored for the needs of small businesses.*

Session 5 - Overview of the Consultant E-contracting Program and CARS

3:10-4:10 PM

Moderator: Nate Czech

Panel

Nate Czech, WisDOT Consultant Services Chief

Sharon Bremser, State Consultant Services Supervisor

Dan Meinen, WisDOT CARS Administrator

EXECUTE: Technology plays an increasingly large role in how WisDOT conducts business. This session will review the progress of WisDOT efforts to automate all processes including: budget and schedule management, consultant registration, solicitation of contracts, selection of consultants, development of contracts, execution of contracts, and reporting progress. WisDOT's Consultant Services team will conduct a tutorial on the Contract Administration and Reporting System [CARS] and entertain your questions about the system.*

EXECUTE: Compliance Strategies for Workforce Somerset Somerset Room

Moderator: Jenna Koleske

Session 1 - Overview of Prevailing Wage; Implications from Old to New

Panel

Joshua Johnson, DWD-BAS Apprenticeship Training Representative
Tracey Griffith, WRTP/Big Step Director of Construction
Kurt Barikmo, DWD-DVR Business Services Consultant
Jennifer Marks, Forward Service FSET Regional Director
Jose Galvan, MAWIB Apprenticeship & Business Engagement Manager

Panelist will share information on taking advantage of existing training and workforce programs so you are able to maintain a flow of qualified candidates into your organization. These panel representatives will also discuss how they can work with businesses to help with hiring requirements

Session 3 - EEO and Labor Compliance Roundtable

11:20 -12:20 PM

Panel

David Poppert, OFCCP Compliance Officer
William Stark, FHWA Civil Rights Program Manager
Natalia Vega, DOT Labor Compliance Specialist - Lead
Teresa Rademaker, DOT Labor Compliance Specialist

The panel will address common compliance and EEO issues as well as suggested solutions for common issues at the state and federal level. This session will also give the opportunity for contractors to pose EEO or Labor related questions to the experts.

Session 4 - Labor Programs that Win

2:00-3:00 PM

Panel

Tracey Griffith, WRTP-Big Step Director of Construction
Kevyn Radcliffe, Construction Training Program Coordinator
