

An auxiliary lane is an extra lane added between interchange on and off ramps. It is used for speed changes and the maneuvering of entering and exiting traffic. It provides an efficient way to weave into and out of traffic while lessening congestion in the through lanes. Auxiliary lanes balance the traffic load and maintain a more uniform level of service on the highway.

I-41 AT COUNTY E/BALLARD RD IN APPLETON

Auxiliary Lane

I-41 | Outagamie & Brown Counties, Wisconsin

2020-05-13

