

A collector-distributor road, or C-D road, is a limited access road that carries traffic from local roads and arterial roads to freeways or highways. The purpose of a C-D road is to eliminate weaving on the freeway and reduce the number of exit and entrance points on the freeway.

