

CONTRACT WORK TYPE DESCRIPTION

Below are the definitions of the work capabilities contractors are rated for. The ratings for the individual contractors are listed in the All Contractors List.

WORK TYPE	WORK TITLE Work Description
A	GENERAL CONSTRUCTION. The construction of a complete unit of work to include grading, subbase, base, structures, asphaltic or concrete pavement and incidental items, or any combination thereof, as may be required in the proposal.
B	GRADING. The construction of earthwork, including drainage structures, crushed aggregate base course, and such other associated construction included in the proposal.
C	CONCRETE PAVEMENT. The construction of the portland cement concrete base or pavement, including the grading, drainage structures, and other associated construction included in the proposal.
D	ASPHALTIC PAVEMENT. The construction of all types of asphaltic surface courses to include plant mix, road mix, and the application of bitumen, and other associated construction included in the proposal.
E	GRAVEL AND CRUSHED STONE. The construction of crushed aggregate base, shoulder or surface courses and such other associated work as may be included in the proposal.
F	STRUCTURES. The construction of masonry, steel, or timber bridges, viaducts, culverts, railroad bridges, and such incidental construction, including approaches thereto when included in the proposal.
G	RAIL CONSTRUCTION OR REHABILITATION. The construction or rehabilitation of a section of track to include all or a part of the grading, drainage structures, ballasting, laying or replacement of rail, ties, turnouts and crossings, and incidental items, or any combination thereof, as may be required and as included in the proposal. In extending ratings under this category, the Department reserves the right to consider recommendations of the particular railroad company.
H	BRIDGE PAINTING. Work involving the painting of structures and all work incidental thereto and any other work as may be included in the proposal.
I	STREET OR AIRPORT LIGHTING. Work involving trenching and underground duct work, placing electrical cable on and/or under the ground, placing light bases and fixtures, furnishing and stalling visual and instrument aids to navigation (i.e. VASI, REIL, VOR, NDB, ILS/ALS, etc.), to include generators, regulators, transformers and related equipment as required.
J	BUILDING CONSTRUCTION. General construction involving construction of a public building.
K	INCIDENTAL CONSTRUCTION. Work involving sidewalks, curb and gutter, small concrete structures, storm sewers, guard rail, fencing, pavement marking, furnishing and planting of plant materials, cutting and spraying weeds, lighting.